YOM KIPPUR YIZKOR SERVICE

"Open for us the Gates of Righteousness"

TEMPLE ISRAEL
CONGREGATION YAD B'YAD-HAND IN HAND

THIS IS OUR YOM KIPPUR BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE, 5783. Our sacred Yizkor memorial volume is filled with the names of those who were profoundly dear to us in life. May the brightness of their lives ever remain among us as an abiding blessing. May the ner tamid, our eternal light, help us keep the flame of all our sacred memories burning brightly.

We are also aware of too many lives taken by an invisible marauder in COVID-19, including members of Temple Israel and scores of their loved ones. We have been forever scarred by this pandemic even as we remember our losses.

TELL ME OF LIFE . . . TELL ME OF DEATH

And the child asked, "Tell me of life."
And the sage answered:
Life, my child, is a mystery.
We do not ask to be born,
nor do we even understand the meaning of birth — of creation.
We grow and we experience life's pleasures and pains.
we love, and slowly, oh so slowly, we come to realize that we have become — that we are.
At that moment
we humble ourselves before the mystery of life and quietly say:
though I knew not,
I have been granted the most precious gift of all,
the gift of life.

And the child asked, "Tell me of death."

And the sage answered:

Death, my child, is a mystery.

It is the inevitable return of the gift of life, the gift which came free to us.

We live as the trustee of that mysterious being, of that unexplainable becoming.

Yes, you and I are but the trustees of life.

We nurture it, we delight in it, we give of it to others.

And at the appointed time we sadly, yet with pride, return it from whence it came.

The beauty, my child, is that what we are, what we have become, remains long after the gift has been returned.

It remains as a precious keepsake with our loved ones who live on.

-Rabbi Joel Oseran

May God grant us the time and courage to make this better new year filled with light and hope, even amidst challenges. Let us journey, not only with our anxieties and our fears, but with the belief that our loved ones walk beside us, hand in hand, whispering "Tell me of life . . . Tell me of death."

Rabbi David J. Gelfand

The Art of Memory

The custom of publishing congregational Memory–Books is an ancient one which can be traced back to the early Thirteenth Century. Many of the early examples of such books contain pages which are beautifully illuminated with artistic renderings of sacred Jewish symbols and art forms. This edition of our Memory–Book has been transformed into a keepsake of lasting value which we feel will be a great source of pride to our members.

The Significance of Vizkor

Yizkor was originally a prayer that appears to have its origin in Western German. Although the origins of Yizkor and it recitations are unclear, its primary purpose was to commemorate the Jewish martyrs slain during the First and Second Crusades. In time, this origin was forgotten, but the warmth and nostalgia of remembrance became part of Jewish ritual.

Few ceremonies in Jewish life are more powerful in meaning than this Memorial Service. It is a time to remember those loved ones who have passed beyond the threshold of life and into the great space of eternity. It is a time to thank God for the lives of our loved ones no longer with us. It is a time to give homage to those who made the world a better place because they lived in it. It is a time to strengthen the bonds between here and the hereafter in the hearts and minds of those who survive their departed:

"The dust returns to the earth as it was, but the spirit returns to the God who gave it."

There Is No Death

There is no Death. What we call Death Is but a sudden change... Because we know Not where it leads-Therefore it seemeth strange. There is no Death. What we call Death Is but a restful sleep... They wake not soon Who slumber so-Therefore we mourn...we weep. There is no Death. What we call Death Is but surcease from strife... They do not die Whom we call dead— They go from life...to Life!

-Rev. Dr. William F. Rosenblum

This poem is inscribed in the Balcony Lobby adjacent to the memorial plaques at Temple Israel which is dedicated to his memory Rabbi of Temple Israel 1930 - 1968

From the Mourner's Bench

Why did the ancients who arranged our Yom Kippur worship attach Yizkor memories to this day of repentance? And why, near its end, when we pray: "Seal us for blessing in the Book of Life?"

Some questions are better answered with a story. A man prepared his will. All matters were covered. After he died, his children followed his wishes, included one that puzzled them. It had to do with the setting of his grave. He had written in his will, "At my grave place a small bench, and before it a compass with directions, North, South, East and West. When you visit, follow the directions. The request seemed quixotic, but they loved their Dad, and so they followed his request.

When they gathered to dedicate his memorial stone, they sat on the bench. Filled with memories, their eyes focused on the compass. Now they understood their father's request. He always told them that "memory is perspective." Thus, the compass! In his death, he had wanted them to make sure that they carried his memory with them wherever they went: North, South, East and West. Jewish tradition emphasizes that we are defined by the memories of those we carry with us in the course of our journey.

Inevitably, there is a disquieting question that haunts these Yizkor moments. Sitting on the bench, we are invited to face it. The question is not about those whose memories we cherish but about the nature of our own immortality. That's the penultimate question at these Yizkor moments. That's where these moments bring us before our "Book of Life" is sealed.

How shall we use the rest of the only life we will ever be given?

How shall we make the days and months count?

How will we live out our unused years?

Dr. Martin J. Zion Rabbi of Temple Israel 1968-1991

Our thoughts are also with those who have died this year in defense of freedom, especially those who have been members of the United States Armed Forces.

As well our hearts are with those who have died defending the State of Israel and the Jewish People.

Rita Grey – Mom, miss our IHOP breakfasts. It's a little less wonderful, marvelous without you.

Stanley Grey – Dad, I'm carrying on your cheery, colorful ways. Miss you Cindy, Michael, & Mackenzie Grey

"You will forever make us laugh."

Newman & Lehrman Families

"Our family continues to grow with love thanks to your beautiful hearts.

You continue to live in each of us daily."

Hillary, Samara, & Marissa Sweig

"My beloved Dr. Avi eloped with me in 1952, the year she graduated an English Major, Phi Beta Kappa from Hunter College. (We were married by a rabbi in Connecticut.) Sure was an enduring and productive "blessing" -- sixty six years – two sons, five grandchildren, three great grandchildren!!! Dear Dr. Avi lived the translation of her name AVODAH (work) as a student-scholar earning an MD and publishing two best sellers, THE SEXUAL STUFF and NIGHT THOUGHTS RE-FLECTIONS OF A SEX THERAPIST. All this with shared humor! Affection! And love! Love!

Sidney Offit

To Arthur, Rhoda, Christy and Elizabeth

"We hold you tight in our memories. You are the greatest generation and greatest parents!!"

Liz, Mitchell, Hannah, & Sarah Rodbell

"Remembering my little sister today and hold all her memories of her close to my heart."

The Caress Family, Tammy, Jeff, Amanda & Ryan

"A beloved Savta, sorely missed."

Jodi, Ira, Scott & Hannah Citron

"The light and joy you brought to our loves will always be our most precious memories."

Helene Crohn & David Crohn

"Always in our hearts"

The Goldman Family

"In memory of my of wonderful husband, George Katz. He died too young, but memories live on.

Also my fondest memories of my in-laws Bella & Saul Katz, my mother and father Bertha & Arthur Schechter, my father-in-law Jerome Katz, and dear friend Bob Zucker, & to many dear friends & family who have passed on"

Remembered by Fran Katz

"'Forever Young' by Joan Baez. May God's blessing keep you always. May your wishes all come true. May you always do for others, and let others do for you.

May you build a ladder to the stars and climb on every rung.

May you stay forever young. We miss you, Dad."

Love Lara, Arianne, & Ryon

"Dad, you were the most beautiful soul- brilliant, loving, kind and generous. I am beyond proud that I was blessed to be your daughter. I miss you every day and I love you with every ounce of my soul."

Nicole Spira O'Grady

"Gardens are full of beauty and hope. When we see robins and butterflies, we know Sylvia and Jerry are with us."

Broken Hearted

(Shir Yaakov Feit)

Ha·le·lu yah Ha·le·lu yah x2 הַלְלוּ יָה הַלְלוּ יָה

Ha·ro·fei lish·vu·rei lev הָרֹפָּא לִשְׁבוּרֵי לֵב Um·cha·besh le·'atz·vo·tam.

Mo·neh mis·par la·ko·cha·vim מוֹנֶה מִסְפָּר לַכּוֹכָבִים Le·chu·lam she·mot yik·ra לָכֵלֶם שֵׁמוֹת יִקְרָא:

> Healer of the broken-hearted Binder of their wounds Counter of uncountable stars You know where they are

A·na El na Re·fa na lah

אנא אַל נא רפא נא לה

Judaism...teaches us to understand death as part of the Divine pattern of the universe. Actually, we could not have our sensitivity without fragility. Mortality is the tax that we pay for the privilege of love, thought, creative work—the toll on the bridge of being from which clods of the earth and snow-peaked mountain summits are exempt...We are prisoners of the years, yet that very prison is the room of discipline in which we, driven by the urgency of time, create.

Actually, there could be no growth, no progress, if generations did not come and go...There is a time to run gaily with all the intense excitement of a boy with flushed cheeks racing on a summer's day toward the winding river of sport and adventure; there is also the time when that boy, transformed by the alchemy of the years into an old man, no longer seeks to run but it is quite content to sit and browse even unto the twilight.

– Rabbi Joshua Loth Liebman

When a soldier in the forces of a ruler of flesh and blood falls, That ruler hardly knows that one is missing. If one soldier is slain, there others to replace that one.

But our Ruler, the Creator of the Universe,
The Holy One, Who is to be blessed,
Desires life, loves peace, and pursues peace;
Loves the people of Israel, and has chosen us from the nations,
Not because we are greatest in number - For we are the least in number - But because the Holy One loves us;
And because we are few in number,
Each of us is as important in the eyes of the Holy One,
As a whole regiment.
When one of Israel is missing,
A diminishing and lessening takes place;
There is a decline of strength.

Therefore, we pray after the death of each Jew, Yitgadal v'yitkadash sh'mey raba,

May the Power of the Name be magnified,
And may no lessening of power come to the Holy One
Who is blessed and sanctified,
In the world which was created according to the Holy Will.
Therefore, O brothers and sisters of the whole house of Israel,
All you who participate in this mourning,
Let us turn our hearts to the Holy One,
The Ruler and Redeemer of Israel
And pray for ourselves and for our Creator as well:
that we may be worthy to live and see with our very eyes,

That the One, who mercifully makes peace in the high heavens, Will make peace for each of us, For all Israel and for all the who inhabit the earth. And let us say: Amen.

- Adapted from S.Y. Agnon

Oseh shalom bimromav, hu yaaseh shalom aleinu, v'al kol Yisrael va'al kol yoshvei teiveil, V'imru: Amen עֹשֶׂה שָׁלוֹם בִּמְרוֹמָיו, הוּא יַּצְשֶׂה שָׁלוֹם עָלֵינוּ, וְעַל כָּל יִשְׂרָאֵל וְעַל כָּל יוֹשְׁבֵי תַבַל, וְאִמְרוּּ אָמֵן.

May the Maker of peace above make peace for us, all Israel, and all who dwell on earth. Amen

If some messenger were to come to us with the offer that death should be overthrown, but with the one inseparable condition that birth should also cease; if the existing generation were given the chance to live for ever, but on the clear understanding that never again would there be a child, or a youth, or first love, never again new persons with new hopes, new ideas, new achievements; ourselves for always and never any others — could the answer be in doubt?

We shall not fear the summons of death; we shall remember those who have gone before us, and those who will come after us!

"Alas for those who cannot sing, but die with all their music in them." Let us treasure the time we have, and resolve to use it well, counting each moment precious — a chance to apprehend some truth, to experience some beauty, to conquer some evil, to relieve some suffering, to love and be loved, to achieve something of, lasting worth.

Help us, God, to fulfill the promise that is in each of us, and so to conduct ourselves that, generations hence, it will be true to say of us: The world is better because, for a brief space, they lived in it

If Tomorrow Never Comes

Sometimes late at night
I lie awake and watch her sleeping
She's lost in peaceful dreams
So I turn out the lights and lay there in the dark
And the thought crosses my mind
If I never wake in the morning
Would she ever doubt the way I feel
About her in my heart

If tomorrow never comes
Will she know how much I loved her
Did I try in every way to show her every day
That she's my only one
And if my time on earth were through
And she must face this world without me
Is the love I gave her in the past
Gonna be enough to last
If tomorrow never comes

'Cause I've lost love ones in my life
Who never knew how much I loved them
Now I live with the regret
That my true feelings for them never were revealed
So I made a promise to myself
To say each day how much she means to me
And avoid that circumstance
Where there's no second chance to tell her how I feel

If tomorrow never comes
Will she know how much I loved her
Did I try in every way to show her every day
That she's my only one
And if my time on earth were through
And she must face this world without me
Is the love I gave her in the past
Gonna be enough to last
If tomorrow never comes

So tell that someone that you love Just what you're thinking of If tomorrow never comes There are times when each of us feels lost or alone, adrift and forsaken, unable to reach those next to us, or to be reached by them. And there are days and night when existence seems to lack all purpose, and our lives seem brief sparks in an indifferent cosmos.

Fear and loneliness enter into the soul. None of us is immune from doubt and fear; none escapes times when all seems dark and senseless. Then, at the ebbtide of the spirit, the soul cries our and reaches for companionship.

- Gates of Prayer

v'shavti b'veit Adonai		וְשַׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית־יְיָ
l'orech yamim.	,	לְאְרֶךְ יָמִים.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

When I die give what's left of me away to children and old men that wait to die. And if you need to cry, cry for your brother walking the street beside you. And when you need me, put your arms around anyone and give them what you need to give me.

I want to leave you something, something better than words or sounds. Look for me in the people I've known or loved, and if you cannot give me away, at least let me live in your eyes and not in your mind.

You can love me best by letting hands touch hands, and by letting go of children that need to be free. Love doesn't die, people do. So, when all that's left of me is love, give me away.

-Meritt Malloy

It is hard to sing of oneness when the world is not complete, when those who once brought wholeness to our life have gone, And naught but memory can fill the emptiness their passing leaves behind.

But memory can tell us only what we were, in company with those we loved: it can not help us find what each of us, alone, must now become.

Yet no one is really alone:

Those who live no more, echo still within our thoughts and words, and what they did is part of what we have become.

We do best homage to our dead when we live our lives more fully, even in the shadow of our loss.

For each of our lives is worth the life of the whole world; in each one is the breath of the Ultimate One.

In affirming the One, we affirm the worth of each one Whose life, now ended, brought us closer to the Source of life, in whose unity no one is alone and every life finds purpose.

From Psalm 16: Secure in the Presence of God

> שְׂבַע שְׂמָחוֹת אֶת־פָּנֵיךּ נִעְמוֹת בִּימִינָךּ נֵצַח:

I have set the Eternal always before me; God is at my side, I shall not be moved. Therefore does my heart exult and my soul rejoice; my being is secure. For You will not abandon me to death nor let Your faithful ones see destruction. You show me the path of life; Your presence brings fullness of joy; enduring happiness is Your gift.

Each of us has a name Given by the source of light And given by our parents

Each of us has a name Given by our stature and our smile And given by what we wear

Each of us has a name Given by the mountains And given by our walls

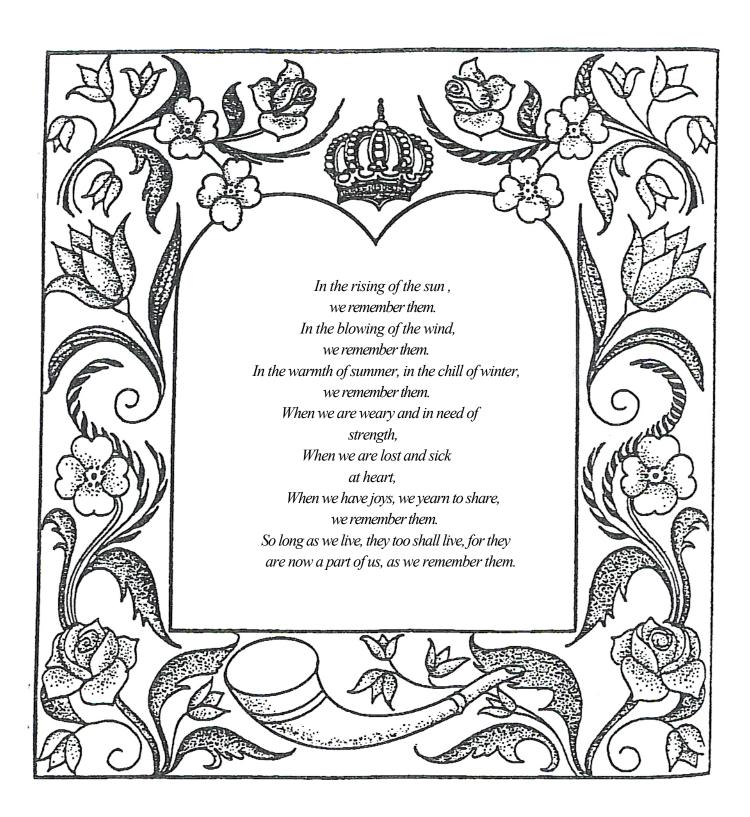

Each of us has a name Given by the stars And given by our neighbors Each of us has a name Given by our sins And given by our longing

Each of us has a name Given by our enemies And given by our love

Each of us has a name Given by our celebrations And given by our work

Each of us has a name Given by the sea And given by Our death

(Zelda, adapted)

We miss them at celebrations, when there's an empty seat at the table. We miss them when the community gathers, and there's an empty place beside us. We miss them today, and every today, with every year that passes, as our life goes on without them. Their faces, their voices, the feel of our arms around them these are with us forever. For so it is written: Love is strong as death. The love that we gave, the love we received these endure amid the pain of loss.

There are stars up above, so far away we only see their light long, long after the star itself is gone. And so it is with people that we loved their memories keep shining ever brightly though their time with us is done. But the stars that light up the darkest night, these are the lights that guide us. As we live our days, these are the ways we remember.

In Memory Of A Parent

My heart fills with tender memories of you in this Yizkor hour. I recall your care, how you watched over me, goaded and guided me, embraced and enveloped me with your nurturing love. I remember the days we spent together, in love and friendship. I miss your concern, your wisdom, your kind, proud eyes in which I danced. You gave me life and formed my love for life. The bond which unite us can never be severed. You live forever in the goodness I do and in the light I bring into the lives of others. I give thanks to God for all my precious memories of you.

In Memory Of A Life Companion

We shared the sweet vintage of life together. How fortunate we were, two stars in an infinite sea of space to find each other, and to brighten existence with our embraces of love. We drank from the cup of affection, built our house of dreams, shared sorrows, frustrations and fulfillments. Now I miss you every day, O companion of my life, my closest and best friend. I hear your voice urging me not to dwell in despair, but to grasp life for both of us. I give thanks to God for the gifts of our love and for the inspiration of your memory.

In Memory Of A Brother, A Sister Or A Friend

In this Yizkor moment, I recall you. I remember the days when we shared companionship, laughter and wisdom. You supported me in times of trouble, uplifted my spirits when I was down. You are gone, but your influence continues to echo lovingly inside me. Your thoughts and deeds live on. I cherish your memory. May life distill its goodness into countless blessings, which reflect your image which ever abides with me. I am ever grateful for all we shared.

In Memory Of A Child

You were a jewel placed in my possession for too little time. I recall your bright, inquisitive eyes, the softness of your touch, all the love that you brought into my life. There is a void I feel that will never be filled. Your loss still assails me with anguish. I cannot allow the gift you were to fade into oblivion. Your life has taught me to cherish life, to reach out with support, generosity and love to others. In all good I do, you are there. Your memory brings brightness and blessings without number.

In Memory

They are not gone from us. O no! they are The inmost essence of each thing that is Perfect for us; they flame in every star; The trees are emerald with their presences. They are not gone from us; they do not roam The flaw and turmoil of the lower deep, But now have made the whole world their home, And in its loveliness themselves they sleep.

They fail not ever; theirs is the diurn Splendor of sunny hill and forest grave; In every rainbow's glittering drop they burn; They dazzle in the massed clouds' architrave; They chant on every wind, and they return In the long roll of any deep blue wave.

I remember you Ever with love, You have not departed From my unforgetting heart.

You lit my being With power to see, You gave me comfort That remains with me.

I remember you Who liked us in The warmth of father, Mother, brother, sister, Child, grandchild.

I remember you In joyous days, Beholding the strange beauty And wonder of our universe.

I hold you now, Ever close to me, Through the precious gift Of loving memory. Shall I cry out in anger, O God, Because Your gifts are mine but for a while? Shall I forget the blessing of health The moment there is pain?

Shall I be ungrateful for the laughter, The seasons of joy, the days of gladness, When tears cloud my eyes and darken the world And my heart is heavy within me?

Shall I blot from mind the love I have rejoiced in when fate Leaves me bereft of shining presences That have lit my way through years Of companionship and affection?

Shall I, in days of adversity, fail to recall The hours of glory You once did grant me?

Shall I, in turmoil of need and anxiety, Cease blessing You for the peace of former days? Shall the time of darkness put out for ever The glow of the light in which once I walked?

Give me the vision, O God, to see That embedded in each of Your gifts Is a core of eternity, undiminished and bright, An eternity that survives the dread hours of affliction.

Those I have loved, though now beyond my view, Have given form and quality to my being. They have led me into the wide universe I continue to inhabit, and their presence Is more real to me than their absence.

What You give to me, O God, You never take away.
And bounties granted once
Shed their radiance evermore.

Let the glory of God be extolled, let Your great name be hallowed in the world whose creation You willed. May Your kingdom soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.

Let Your great name be blessed for ever and ever.

Let the name of the Holy One, blessed is God, be glorified, exalted, and honored, though You is beyond all the praises, songs, and adoration that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

The departed whom we remember have entered into the peace of life eternal. They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in our hearts as we cherish the memory of their unfinished lives. May the beauty of their lives abide among us as a loving benediction. May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved, here and everywhere. And let us say as one family of families: Amen.
